

Peran Pendidikan Nonformal Terhadap Jasa-Jasa Pendukung Pariwisata Daerah di Kabupaten Aceh Tengah

Mus Mujiono

ABSTRAK

Education is very important role in the development and the development of a region, especially in developing the potential of the resources of a region. Education which was expected to create human-human that is able to excavate and develop all the potential with the appropriate relevance to the potential of the area. In this case will be discussed how far the role of non-formal education institutions such as foreign language courses, computer skills and other support in the development potential of a region or regions of the support services, especially tourism in Central Aceh Regency. This study aims to determine the role of the existence of non-formal education institutions, especially the course of the services that support tourism in the Central Aceh Regency. The targets will be achieved in this research is to identify and analyze the characteristics of institutions in the course Kabupaten Aceh Tengah. Identify the characteristics and analysis services to support tourism in the Central Aceh Regency. Analyze the course of the institution with the services that support tourism in the Middle District of Aceh, to provide conclusions and recommendations. From the results of the analysis, it is known that institutions have a role in a high enough services to support tourism in the region of Aceh Tengah Regency is computer institute courses language courses and institutions.

Keywords: role, non-formal education, institute courses, tourism