

Kusrahajuwati

Jurusan Inggris Fakultas Sastra Universitas Diponegoro

Abstract

Pairwork is a way of doing tasks in pairs during the process of foreign language learning. The strengths, of this technique are, among other things, enabling learners to change incomprehensible input into comprehensible one, providing more opportunities to practice the target language, building students, confidence and developing communication strategy. The drawbacks of pair work are, fro example, the use of L1 and the negligence of tasks given.