ABSTRACT

Regulation of trade in services in General Agreement on Trade in Services and the presence of multinasional corporations have a big impact to Indonesia legal profession. Referring to Article VI: 4 GATS, standardization, qualification and license to foreign lawyer has to be arranged without sacrificing national interest. Mutual Recognition Agreement constitutes a good step to empower Indonesian lawyers but the quality and competitiveness of “Sarjana Hukum” Indonesia will be determined by the producers of Indonesia Higher Education. Stressing of the education is education for professional (ius constitutum). Academic legal education is still relevant with regard to law making (ius constituendum) in order to fulfill the need of law in the country.

Key words : GATS, standardization of profession, law school
