Author Guidelines

- The submission file is preferred in Microsoft Word file format. However, author may use PDF format as well.
- A manuscript template can be found here (MS Word / PDF).
- Please note that the in-text citations are to be in the format [1] (number in brackets).
- Papers must be submitted on the understanding that they have not been published elsewhere (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture, review, or thesis) and are not currently under consideration by another journal published by any other publisher.
- The submitting author is responsible for ensuring that the article's publication has been approved by all the other coauthor(s), if any.
- It is also the authors' responsibility to ensure that the articles emanating from a particular source are submitted with the necessary approval.
- The manuscript must be prepared using the AJAS template and preferably submitted online or sent to ajas@ajouronline.com
- If submitting to a peer-reviewed section of the journal, the instructions in Ensuring a Blind Review have been followed.
- If you do not receive e-mail in your 'inbox', check your 'bulk mail' or 'junk mail' folders. To make sure that you can receive messages from us, please add the 'ajouronline.com' domain to your e-mail 'safe list'.

Submission Preparation Checklist

As part of the submission process, authors are required to check off their submission's compliance with all of the following items, and submissions may be returned to authors that do not adhere to these guidelines.

1. The submission has not been previously published, nor is it before another journal for consideration (or an explanation has been provided in Comments to the Editor).
2. The submission file is in OpenOffice, Microsoft Word, RTF, or WordPerfect document file format.
3. Where available, URLs for the references have been provided.
4. The text adheres to the stylistic and bibliographic requirements outlined in the Author Guidelines, which is found in About the Journal.

Copyright Notice

- Papers must be submitted on the understanding that they have not been published elsewhere (except in the form of an abstract or as part of a published lecture, review, or thesis) and are not currently under consideration by another journal published by any other publisher.
 - It is also the authors responsibility to ensure that the articles emanating from a particular source are submitted with the necessary approval.
 - The authors warrant that the paper is original and that he/she is the author of the paper, except for material that is clearly identified as to its original source, with permission notices from the copyright owners where required.
 - The authors ensure that all the references carefully and they are accurate in the text as well as in the list of references (and vice versa).
 - Authors retain copyright and grant the journal right of first publication with the work simultaneously licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution License that allows others to share the work with an acknowledgement of the work's authorship and initial publication in this journal.
 - Authors are able to enter into separate, additional contractual arrangements for the non-exclusive distribution of the journal's published version of the work (e.g., post it to an institutional repository or publish it in a book), with an acknowledgement of its initial publication in this journal.
 - Authors are permitted and encouraged to post their work online (e.g., in institutional repositories or on their website) prior to and during the submission process, as it can lead to productive exchanges, as well as earlier and greater citation of published work (See The Effect of Open Access).
 - The journal/publisher is not responsible for subsequent uses of the work. It is the author's responsibility to bring an infringement action if so desired by the author.
